The President's Commission on Executive Exchange
THE WHITE HOUSE

June 23, 1989

Dear Judge Webster:

As the new Executive Director of the President's Commission on Executive Exchange, I would like to have the opportunity to visit with you briefly about our program.

The Presidential Exchange program places corporate executives from the private sector into government, and places federal executives into the corporate world for one year.

The Presidential Exchange Program also includes a Public Policy Seminar in the fall in Washington, a week at Harvard in the winter, and an International Seminar each spring. In addition, we offer the class a weekly speaker to expose them to the brightest minds and ideas Washington has to offer.

I want to bring you up to date on this program as we begin our twentieth year. We need your support and enthusiasm as we promote the President's desire to exchange expertise between the public and private sectors.

My schedule is flexible. If your scheduler will contact Sandra Sharpe at 395-4616, perhaps we can arrange a visit soon.

Thank you for your consideration. We are in the process of recruiting and placing for the next year, and hope you will continue your interest and participation.

Sincerely,

Betty Heitman
